PREPARING FOR PRAYER

Psalm 146

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Almighty God, the Psalmist declares that those who place their hope in You are blessed. They have come to experience your care when they are oppressed, your nourishment when they are hungry, your freedom even when held captive in life. You give direction when we are blind, and care when we are cut off from those we love. You always lead those who are righteous and frustrate the plans of those who are not. Thank You for who You are. Thank You that as we follow Jesus, your son and our savior, we become more like You. Forgive us, Lord, when our spiritual immaturity does not reflect your character. Grow in us a commitment to follow your ways and live your love. And as we live as your children, let your light shine through us, just like it did in Jesus our Lord. In His name we pray. Amen.
