WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

✠ CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Almighty God, leaving the distractions of our world, we come to this place, set aside from life's demands, to worship You.

All: Renew our hearts, minds and faith, O God, as we worship You.

One: As we come into your presence O Lord, cause us to see life differently, to see it as You see it.

All: Open our eyes, our ears, our hearts as we grow through your Word.

One: Let us worship God through the power of God's Spirit as revealed to us in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Empower us to live our faith as we worship You, in spirit and in truth.

PREPARING FOR PRAYER

Psalm 24

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Almighty God, the Psalmist declares that everything and everyone belongs to You. When we understand the scope of that claim we truly must proclaim, "To God be the glory." But Lord, when we are honest with ourselves, we like to take pieces of glory and give it to ourselves or others. We give glory to our children and grandchildren. We give glory to and offer praise to our team of choice. When we experience success, we tend to pat ourselves on the back. Like those of past generations we gravitate toward worshipping the creation instead of the Creator. Our points of praise reveal the priorities of our lives. When our priorities are wrong our lives get out of focus. Forgive us Lord. Draw us back once again to You. Like Jesus empower us to place You at our center and allow all else to flow from there. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
